Junior Achievement and HSBC “Crash the Classroom”

Female Student 1: I don't know what global economy means.

Female Student 2: I don't think the U.S. economy affects the other...the rest of the world because it's just ours.

Male Student 1: I, I don't want a job that I will have to travel.

Female Student 2: If I had to live anywhere, I would stay here.

Male Student 2: I don't really want a job that where I have to live in another country.

Male Student 1: When I walked into the classroom I was like 'wow'!

Female Student 3: There was colors, countries. I saw food, flags.

Male Student 1: Maps and different objects from different countries.

Alka:
[00:01:00] If I had learned about the cultures of different countries as a, as a school kid, it would have probably helped me appreciate the different cultures.

Female Student 2: We walked to our table. I did India. And our mentor told us about, um, the culture in India, the food they would eat.

Steven: We live in a very global society today, and where HSBC can actually talk about different business practices and to, to bring in different cultures and perspectives really impacts these kids.

Male Student 2: We really learned about business meetings and how to greet people. I learned how to say 'my name is' in Korean: 'Juhneun Senai'.

Male Student 3: There's so many different currencies and things that other countries have that other countries don't.

Female Student 2: We need to take the time to learn about different cultures because it can give you a general idea of what the world is actually like.

Male Student 2: It's still, still going, yep. Yep.

Male Student 3: What you see on like TV or whatever, it's a lot more than that.

Female Student 2: We're all the same people, just with different traits.

Male Student 1: It was so fun learning about another culture.

[00:02:00]

Male Student 2: We need to take time to learn about different cultures because it is very important to life and business.
